French Jacquerie (insurrection) 1358 English Peasants Revolt – June 1381

Chapter 13 – Reformation & Religious Warfare

German Peasants' War 1524-1525

Peasants were “democratic” and had no way to coordinate their actions.

Luther’s doctrine of “priesthood of all believers” was interpreted as encouraging greater social equality.

Revolt proceeded by several poor harvests.

Demands included local election of clergy, reduction of tithes, taxes, and rents.

Opposed by Martin Luther

Against the Murderous, Thieving Hordes of Peasants

calls for aristocrats to put down the rebels like mad dogs

Chapter 13 – Reformation & Religious Warfare

Council of Trent

1545-1563 25 sessions

Beliefs

- There are 7 sacraments
- Religious truth comes from the Bible and church teaching
- The pope is the head of the Church
- The bread and wine becomes the body and blood of Christ during the mass

Discipline

- No more simony and nepotism
- No more pluralism and absenteeism
- Seminaries must be set up to teach priests properly
- An index of forbidden (Protestant) books must be drawn up

simony

/ˈsaɪməni/

noun 1. (Christianity) the practice, now usually regarded as a sin, of buying or selling spiritual or Church benefits such as pardons, relics, etc, or preferments

TRANSUBSTANTIATION

The Transubstantiation is the sacramental act by which the substance of the bread and wine is changed into the substance of the Body and Blood of Christ.

This great miracle, which happens in every Mass, cannot be rationally demonstrated, but is accepted by faith.
