

Online Quiz Chapter 20

1. The liberators of Venezuela and Argentina, respectively, were Simón Bolívar and José de San Martín
Benito Juárez and Vicente Rojas
José de San Martín and Alfonso Stroessner
Santa Ana and Toussaint L'Ouverture
Augustín de Iturbide and Toussaint Prado
2. All of the following were direct results of the Spanish-American War EXCEPT:
American investment in Latin America increased.
Haiti gained independence.
American military action in Latin America escalated sharply.
The United States annexed Puerto Rico.
Cuba became an American protectorate.
3. The first important American colony was the Philippine Islands.
Samoan Islands. island of Guam.
island of Puerto Rico.
Hawaiian Islands.
4. The first male-dominated occupation to be entered by women was jurisprudence.
architecture.
nursing.
manufacturing.
teaching.
5. An early leader in the drive to professionalize nursing for women was Nora Ibsen in Norway.
Francoise Jourdain in Belgium.
Amalie Jones in Great Britain.
Sylvia Pankhurst in Germany.
Clara Barton in the United States.
6. Social Darwinism was given a psychological dimension by Sigmund Freud.
an artistic interpretation by Vincent von Gogh.
an economic interpretation by Adam Smith.
a racial interpretation by Houston Stewart Chamberlain.
a scientific interpretation by Max Planck.

7. The architect who pioneered the modern American home was:
- George D. Mason.
 - David Adler.
 - Louis H. Sullivan.
 - Frank Lloyd Wright
 - Charles N. Agree
8. What was the reason for issuing the Monroe Doctrine?
- To stop competing cotton interests in Latin America.
 - To prevent further European expansion in the Western Hemisphere.
 - To use the principal of Manifest Destiny to expand into South America.
 - To allow American bounty hunters to have jurisdiction in Latin America over runaway slaves.
 - To allow the US to use newly independent Latin American countries for raw materials in industrialization.
9. Between 1898 and 1934, US military forces were sent to all the following regions EXCEPT
- Argentina
 - Cuba
 - Mexico
 - Guatemala
 - Panama
10. The Realist who portrayed the middle and lower classes in Britain's early industrial age was
- Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
 - Charles Darwin
 - Charles Dickens
 - George Orwell
 - George Sands