

Online Quiz Chapter 25-B

Question 1

The naval battle that established United States naval superiority in the Pacific was the Battle of
New Caledonia.
Shimonosecki Strait.
Malacca.
Midway.
the Coral Sea.

Question 2

At the meeting of the Big Three at Tehran
the Soviet Union agreed to declare war against fascist Spain.
it was agreed to use the atomic bomb against Japan.
Roosevelt and Churchill agreed to let Stalin take control of Eastern Europe.
Churchill strongly advocated an American-only invasion of France.
the Allies decided to partition postwar Germany.

Question 3

By the end of 1926, Mussolini ruled Italy with this title:
Citoyen
Beloved Leader
Il Duce
der Furher
El Jefe

Question 4

In forming the Nazi party, Adolf Hitler lobbied a grassroots movement through the German Reichstag consciously emulated the tactics employed by Mussolini.
ran for president of the Weimar Republic.
tried to overthrow the government in Berlin.
argued for violent political revolution to implement Communism.

Question 5

Which of the following was NOT a tactic taken by the Nazi Party to ensure control of all institutions?
dissolving all trade unions suspending the German Reichstag purging the civil service of Jewish and democratic elements.
establishing concentration camps for opponents of the party.
abolishing all political parties except the Nazi.

Question 6

Mussolini and Hitler joined forces in support of

- Japan's invasion of Nanking
- annexing Poland
- Hitler's occupation of Ethiopia
- occupying Belgium
- Franco's fascist army in the Spanish Civil War

Question 7

What was meant by the "phony war?"

- Japan's focus on Southeast Asia
- Italian occupation of Egypt
- lack of active tactics during the winter of 1939-40.
- The claim of right to invade Poland by Germany
- German claims of outrage at violation of the Munich Accords

Question 8

What were the two fatal strategic errors committed by German dictator Adolf Hitler in December, 1941?

- Declaring war on the French and ordering the Luftwaffe to bomb Paris.
- Declaring war on the U.S. and ordering the Wehrmacht to give no ground in Russia, regardless of the circumstances.
- Declaring war on the British and ordering the Kriegsmarine to blockade Great Britain.
- Declaring war on the Japanese and ordering the Kriegsmarine to blockade Japan

Question 9

What major strategic intent did U.S. war plan "Rainbow 5" express with regard to operations in the Pacific?

- That the U.S. and its allies would concentrate their efforts on defeating France first.
- That the U.S. and its allies would concentrate their efforts on defeating Germany first.
- That the U.S. and its allies would concentrate their efforts on defeating Japan first.
- That the U.S. and its allies would concentrate their efforts on defeating Russia first.

Question 10

Who was in overall command of Operation Overlord, and as such what position did he hold?

- General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who was designated Supreme Commander, Allied Expeditionary Force.
- Lieutenant General Omar N. Bradley, who was designated Commanding General, U. S. First Army
- General Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, who was designated Commanding General, 21st Army Group.
- Lieutenant General Sir Miles C. Dempsey, who was designated Commanding General, British Second Army.

Question 11

The greatest tank battle during WWII was the Battle of the Bulge
El-Alamein
Kursk
Rome
Stalingrad

Question 12

What city suffered the most deaths in a single day due to an aerial bombing raid?
Tokyo Raid - March 9, 1945
Dresden Raid - 13-14 February, 1944
Nagasaki - August 9, 1945
Hiroshima - August 6, 1945
Hamburg Raid - July 27, 1943